Open edmsp1_225439.pdf	Report of the ILO Director-General during the 19th American Regional Meeting, held in Panama City, Panama, from 2-5 October 2018. At four-yearly intervals, the American Regional Meeting brings together the political, economic and social actors from the countries of the Region. The regional meetings provide a platform for analysing the evolution of labour markets, employment policies applied in different countries, social dialogue and the application of international labour standards, among other topics.
