

A multi-year framework for policy coherence and coordination on human resource development between the development working group and the employment working group of the G20

Type: Document

Content Type:

A multi-year framework for policy coherence and coordination on human resource development between the development working group and the employment working group of the G20

Language:

Sources:

Experts from many international, regional and national agencies generously share their views, experiences and findings on skills, helping policy-makers among other stakeholders to understand the linkages between education, training and the world of work, and how to integrate skills into national development planning to promote employment and economic growth.

skpOSource
other-sources

Topics:

Knowledge Products:Publication Date: 22 Aug 2016Openwcmstest4_180486.pdf

This Multi-Year Framework seeks to: (i) identify common areas of work on skills development and employment between the Development Working Group and the Employment Working Group that are key priorities for both groups; and (ii) suggest ways in which the two groups can work together in support of human resource development in both G20 and low income and developing countries during subsequent G20 Presidencies.

Subject Tags:

Regions: