

Integrating core work skills into TVET systems: Six country case studies

Type:	Document
Content Type:	Integrating core work skills into TVET systems: Six country case studies
Language:
Sources:
Topics:
Knowledge Products:
Publication Date:	03 May 2016

Open

wcmstest4_173856.pdf

This report assesses the extent to which six diverse countries have embedded core skills for employability in their TVET and skills systems: Australia; Chile; India; Jamaica; Malawi; and the Philippines. These six case studies have demonstrated that in both developed and developing countries, much remains to be done to ensure that TVET and skills systems adequately and systematically take steps to develop the core skills that so profoundly enhance the employability of learners, jobseekers and workers.

Subject Tags:

Regions:

Countries and territories: