

Blog: Bridging the skills gap for informal economy workers – How can skills and lifelong learning help mitigate the consequences of the crises?

Type:	Blog
Language:
Sources:
Authors:	Christine Hofmann, Skills Specialist
Topics:
Publication Date:	01 Nov 2021

This blog was first posted on the ILO website on 19 May 2020.

Currently, two billion people are engaged in the informal economy and most of them live in low- and middle-income countries. As the whole world grapples with the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic, workers in the informal economy have been hit hard.

BLOG_ Bridging the skills gap for informal economy workers – How can skills and lifelong learning help mitigate the consequences of the crises_.pdf

Subject Tags:

Regions:

Countries and territories:

Economic groups: --